+ RECYCLING LATEX PAINT IN MICHIGAN

www.epaintrecycling.com

According to the EPA, 69 million gallons of paint waste goes into US landfills every year. Some states are beginning to take action through extended producer responsibility legislation in order to better manage this waste. epaintrecycling, LLC is Michigan's first successful latex paint recycling model and Jim Crosby will discuss what is being done in our state to keep our #1 liquid household waste out of the landfills.
